Dread is used to indicate or remind someone of your value, usually by showing that you're willing to remove yourself from a situation, walk away, or seek another option as a replacement in order to gain more power or respect in the power dynamic that is a romantic relationship.

What Is Dread Game & Why Do You Need It In Relationships?

Dear America: I Walk in Dread is a great way to get a look at the Salem Witch Trials from a different point of view. I thoroughly enjoyed this book and would recommend it to anyone interested. I think the author was trying to prove that just because a point in history seems bad doesn't mean no one made it out ok.
