In the first week of December, two more tea ships arrived; the Eleanor and the Beaver. The meetings continued while colonists tried to find a way to prevent the ships from docking. The last meeting was held on December 16 and included over 5,000 people. The colonists sent a message to the governor asking him to allow the ships to return to England without payment. As the owner of one of the ...

The Boston Tea Party - History of Massachusetts

The Boston Tea Party was an American political and mercantile protest by the Sons of Liberty in Boston, Massachusetts, on December 16, 1773. The target was the Tea Act of May 10, 1773, which allowed the British East India Company to sell tea from China in American colonies without paying taxes apart from those imposed by the Townshend Acts. The Sons of Liberty strongly opposed the taxes in the ...

My first afternoon tea is still my favorite. I was in London with my mother-in-law and we were having to rethink our trip. She was a travel agent and had planned flying into London, taking the train to Edinburgh, etc. Because of flooding the trains were not running out of London so we spent our entire trip there. One day she decided we would have afternoon tea and walked into the Ritz. Of ...
