Fabulous book. This book "The Empire of Isher" is a collection of the two original books "The Weapons Shops of Isher" and "The Weapons Makers". I read them when I was a kid and they make the case briefly for the ownership of weapons. "The right to buy weapons is the right to be free." -- The Weapons Shops of Isher by AE Van Vogt.

He also published "The Wizard of Linn" and "Empire of Atom" that was inspired by the Roman imperial history just like Asimov's "Foundation" series. A.E. van Vogt's "The World of Null-A" is a classic fantasy tale about the use of general semantics that posits that the human nervous system can identify and alter reality.
